

WORKSHOP IN METHODS

Grant Application Workshop for Early-Career Social Scientists

with Dr. Regina Werum

Friday, September 28, 2018

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 2:00-3:30pm | Introduction to Proposal Writing, Best Practices, and Q&A |
| 3:30-3:45pm | Break |
| 3:45-4:30pm | Q&A with recent awardees |
| 4:30-6:00pm | Funding opportunities for Social Science and Social Science Methodology |
| 6:00pm | Reception |

Saturday, September 29, 2018

- 8:00-10:00am Hands-on session with Dr. Werum for prospective applicants. Space is limited and registration required by September 14th with a one-page draft project summary. Register at <http://go.iu.edu/24Rx>.

Currently at the University of Nebraska Lincoln, Dr. Regina E. Werum earned her M.A. and a combined Ph.D. in Sociology and American Studies from Indiana University, Bloomington. From 2010-2012, she served as a Program Director for Sociology at the National Science Foundation.

Friday, September 28
2-6pm

Saturday, September 29
8-10am

Social Science Research Commons Grand Hall
Woodburn Hall 200

go.iu.edu/wim

Social Science Research Commons & Karl F. Schuessler Institute for Social Research